What We Do!

- Assist you in achieving your career goals
- Provide recruiting services to facilitate students in obtaining jobs and internships
- Communicate with employers on a regular basis
- Collect and report employment data

But It's Up to You!

The likelihood of your success in obtaining your goals is directly related to your efforts:

- Networking: email and face-to-face
- Researching firms of interest
- Scouring employer websites
- Preparing for interviews
- Follow the advice given you by your Career Counselor and Communications Coach!

We help you reach your goals. However, the work is yours to do. If you depend upon our recruiter relationships and the MSCF brand name but do not do your part, you will likely fail to secure the job you want!

Your Career Counselor Will Help You

- Identify an attainable career path
- Identify ways to differentiate yourself
- Write an effective resume & cover letter
- Create a job/internship search plan
- Prepare for interviews and conduct mock interviews
- Discuss interview feedback given by employers
- Prepare for a job fair
- Build a professional network
- Evaluate and negotiate a job offer

Setting Expectations

What you can expect from us:

- Frequent emails advertising open jobs/internship positions, career events and corporate presentations, job fairs, and workshops —sent via QuantConnect or mscfrecruiting@andrew.cmu.edu
- Request missing information for pending interviews and job/internship offers
- Available appointments to meet your needs

Setting Expectations

What we expect from you:

- Check your emails on a daily basis
- Respond to emails sent by MSCF staff members within 24 hours
- Report all internship/job offers within 48 hours, even if you plan to decline them
- Think before you email—appropriate email interactions with staff

Abe Berkley-Vigil, MSCF '17

"The MSCF program offered a detailed breakdown of the employment and salary figures for graduating students that other programs did not. Programs that shared employment information could not compete with the numbers from MSCF. This transparency showed me that the MSCF program stood behind their product. They had something true to offer."

RECRUITING REQUIREMENTS

1. Resume Requirements

Step One: Attend Group Resume Review Workshop w/ local counselor

- Available between July 31- August 3
- Sign-up via QuantConnect

Step Two: Attend 1:1 appt. with local Career Counselor

- Schedule this for AFTER you've attended the Group Resume Workshop (schedule via QuantConnect)
- This must be scheduled with the Career Counselor on the campus you physically attend
- Deadline for 1:1 with Counselor is August 10
- Step Three: Upload your resume to QC Resume Book

Group Resume Review

- You MUST attend one of these sessions to participate in recruiting

How to sign up for a group workshop (demo)

- Login to QuantConnect using your Andrew Email and Password
- Click “Events”—you will see the Group Resume Workshops appear
- Select your desired day/time workshop you want to attend; pay attention to instructions

Group Resume Review

- Pay attention to the event titles, as some are restrictive for those students in programming prep
- Registration opens for all groups resume workshops today at 5:30pm and closes a few hours prior to the beginning of each individual workshop
- Workshops allow 6 students and each session will be full; do not wait to sign up!
- Bring 7 hard copies of your resume to share

2. Mock Interview Requirements

- You are required to attend a mock interview with your Career Counselor
- Schedule using QuantConnect
- Mock Interviews begin August 27 and must be completed by October 5 (actual on-campus interviews may begin as early as Sept. 18)
- If you have an interview scheduled BEFORE SEPTEMBER 18, schedule your mock interview well before that time

Mock Interview Requirements

- Dress in the clothes and shoes you plan to wear for interviews (refer to Business & Fashion 101 presentation)
- Send a position description of the job you want us to interview you for and your updated resume to your Career Counselor at least 24 hours in advance of the mock interview appointment
- Prepare for behavioral, technical, brainteaser, market, and company profile questions, AND be prepared to discuss everything on your resume

3. Code of Conduct Requirement

- Review, agree to, and sign MSCF Career Services Code of Conduct (reviewing in next session)
