- Treks are the formal start of your pursuit of an internship
- Please show respect and speak English only
- If you commit to attend and back out or miss a scheduled visit, you will be permanently BANNED from the QFC events
 - You will NOT receive a refund on your membership dues
- Please do not burn bridges that 2nd year students and alumni have worked hard to build
- Being considerate for your classmates is expected

Preparing for your meeting

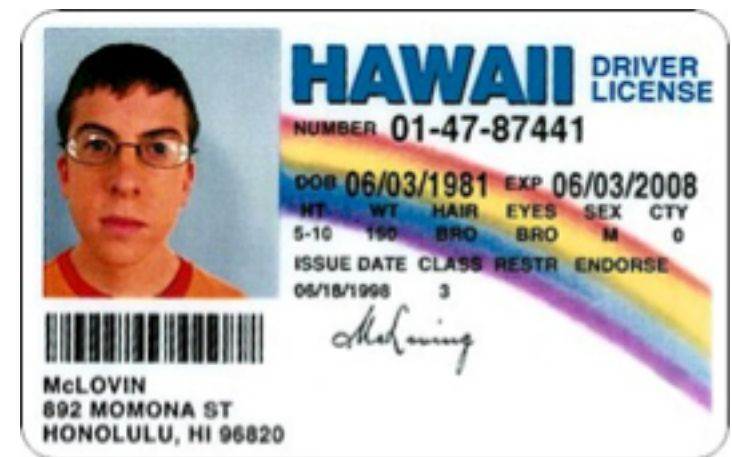

- Research
 - Resources: Google, WSJ, ThomsonOne, Datamonitor, Investext
 - Annual reports for each firm, Company websites
 - 2nd year students
- Prepare questions ahead of time
 - Write them down
- Know who the CEO is, where the stock is trading, and what the market cap is for all firms you visit
- Be up to date on current events

- Treks are self funded
- Map out your routes and figure out transportation
- You will receive schedules approximately 1 week before the Trek
- Determine ahead of time the best way to reach each of your site visits (taxi, subway, walking)
- NYC Subway or Google Maps
 - Download these apps

Before the meeting

- Show up 15 minutes early
 - If you are late, you will not be allowed in
 - membership will be revoked
- Bring government issued ID AND Student ID
 - Building security will not let you in without government ID
- Meet OUTSIDE the building and check in with 2nd yr. club rep.
- Turn your cell phones off
- Do not bring food
- No backpacks / laptop bags
 - Bring Tepper portfolio & resume

What to expect

- Learning opportunity AND Networking opportunity NOT one or the other
- Some will be more formal, others will be solely Q&A
 - We have not chosen the format, the speaker controls it
 - Write down at least 3 questions for each meeting
 - If no one is asking questions the 2nd year mentor at your visit WILL cold call on individuals to ask questions. BE PREPARED
- Ask questions that help you learn about the firm
 - Use these answers for interviews later!
- Take notes
- Listen

Networking at the company visit

- Only ask for contact information when appropriate
- Have your resume available
 - Give your business card only if asked for it specifically
- Do not crowd firm representatives
 - You will not get a job out of these meetings
 - But you can lose a job
- Do not push your classmates out of the way
