

MSCF Resume Review Checklist

FORMATTING

	Overall, is the resume in the MSCF template and no longer than one page?
	Is the same font used throughout?
	Are bullet points and sections aligned uniformly throughout the resume?
	Are margins the same for all sides? Are they no smaller than 0.5 inches?
	Are dates and locations written consistently and in accordance to template?
	Is punctuation consistent? Are dashes uniform? (You should not use periods on your resume.)
	Are names of universities and companies in all caps? Is your name in all caps?
	Are degrees and job titles in italics?
	Are skills before bullet points in bold?
	Do you have sections/headings listed in order as instructed on the template (Education first; Additional Information last; middle sections in order of most relevant information)? Are section names in all caps?
	Is the information within each section listed in reverse chronological order?
	Are GRE/GMAT/GPA scores in bold and italics?
	If abbreviations are used, will recruiters/industry professionals be familiar?
	Did you save your resume with the following naming convention: First Name Last Name Resume?
	Did you limit the use of adverbs and articles, and omit pronouns?
	Overall, is the resume free of grammar/spelling errors or other typos? Remember, do not use “etc.”.

CONTACT INFORMATION

	Does resume include your legal name? If using a preferred name, it should be in parentheses between first and last legal name.
	Did you use your @andrew.cmu.edu email address? Make sure your email address is not a hyperlink.
	Is your phone number included? (Have you recorded a professional outgoing voicemail message and ensured your voice mailbox is not full?)

EDUCATION

	Are college/university names spelled out? (i.e. Carnegie Mellon University not CMU)
	Is the official name of degree and program listed? (i.e., Bachelor of Arts in Economics, not B.A. Econ)
	Have you listed the month and year you earned your degree(s) and/or expect to earn it?
	If undergraduate GPA is listed, is the scale included? (e.g., 3.5/4.0 or 98/100) It is optional to include GPA/GRE/GMAT.
	Are honors/awards/accolades quantified? (e.g., Top 5%, 1 st place, etc.)

EXPERIENCE & RESEARCH/PROJECTS

	For RESEARCH/PROJECTS, have you included a title in all caps and listed a bolded skill to precede description of work?
	Does each bullet point start with a bolded skill relevant to the content that follows?
	Does each bullet point use the formula: Strong Past-tense Action Verb + Actions You Took + Results Achieved?
	Are results quantified, if possible? Have you focused on your accomplishments, not just your “responsibilities”?
	Is there enough variety with bolded skills in this section? Are there transferable skills such as teamwork, communication, or leadership?

COURSEWORK/SKILLS

	Are courses and skills relevant or transferable to your target positions?
	Are current/future courses marked with an (*), with a note at the bottom of the section explaining these are current/future courses? You should only include courses you are taking during Minis 1-4; Minis 5&6 can be added next summer before you conduct a full-time job search.
	Are technical skills listed in order of proficiency, with strongest being first?

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

	Have you included relevant certifications, either completed or upcoming?
	If languages are listed, is proficiency level noted? (e.g., fluent, native, basic, etc.) You do not need to include “English” as a language, since it is assumed.
	If you listed volunteer/leadership/activities/other experience, be selective and avoid using activities from high school or that are no longer relevant. Emphasize transferable skills in this section vs. only what your “responsibilities” were.
